

FACT SHEET

Singing has always come naturally to Bulgarian-born bass Valentin Peytchinov. Mr. Peytchinov has traveled the world performing in concert halls and opera houses.

Born

Sofia, Bulgaria

Based in

New York City

Principal Artist at

The Metropolitan Opera (2000)

Institutions Attended

Bulgarian National Conservatory

The Juilliard American Opera Center

Studied with

Enrico Di Giuseppe, The Juilliard School

Armen Boyajian, private coach in Manhattan

Master classes with Renata Scotto, Nello Santi, among others

Awards

American Opera Auditions, First Prize, 1990

Luciano Pavarotti Competition, Finalist, 1993

Sullivan Foundation Award Winner

Olga Forrai Foundation Award recipient

Debuts

New York: Alice Tully Hall in Shostakovich's Fourteenth Symphony

U.S.: Beethoven's Ninth Symphony performed with the Santa Fe Symphony Orchestra

Festivals and Galas

International Music Festival, Seattle

Spoletto Festival, Italy

L'Opera de Montreal

Richard Tucker Foundation

Web Site

www.vocalperfection.com

Management

John Miller, Pinnacle Arts Management, 212-397-7915, www.pinnaclearts.com